During the whole school transition afternoon, on Monday 1st July, each class will spend time with their next form teacher, in readiness for September. Parents will also be invited to a Parent Information Meeting on Thursday 12th September 2019 to discuss, with their child's new Form teacher, expectations for the year, class routines and other key areas such as homework and assessments. In the past, parents have found this to be very beneficial in establishing key information and routines for the year ahead and I would urge parents to attend.
