General Comments

- Very pleased with the school & particularly my son's progress this year.
- My child loves coming to school, it's a wonderful place!
- We are delighted so far with the start to school, it seems to be a happy, productive and informative environment.
- The food has improved this year, but I still feel that the children are unhappy with the options on some days.
- The uniform shop offers an appalling service. They rarely have the uniform in that is required.
- Very welcoming, relaxed but hugely supportive school!
- Great pastoral care!

Communication & Administration

- More reminders on social media to give information on term dates, in addition to email & website
- Weekly menus on website are very helpful
- We are very happy with the school; many changes have taken place under Mrs Callaway's leadership in terms of communication, organisation and health & safety in particular.

- A weekly or fortnightly bulletin to tell us what our child is learning would be very helpful.

Curriculum Provision & Academic Progress

- Great educational provision.
- More information about test marks & homework marks in all subjects would be welcome.
- Very pleased with my son's progress, he is particularly responding to the rewards & certificates this year.
- An informal student progress report once a month to the parents would be a great help to know exactly how my child is progressing.
- Do think that the children could do with a few more trips and visits.
- We feel there could be some more challenge in our daughter's homework.

Behaviour / Rewards & Sanctions

- My older child had problems with bullying, but left Avalon in 2015. My youngest child has not had any problems since there has been a change in leadership.
- My daughter loves the opportunities to receive rewards, stickers & merits for good behaviour and academic work.

Actions following survey:

Q2: Extra-Curricular provision

- Further development of extra- curricular clubs programme for spring term including the addition of STEM, Gardening, Debating, Chess and Japanese Clubs.
- Further fixtures & tournaments planned for Netball, Football and Cross Country teams.
- School involvement in RHS Garden Show competition at Tatton Park.
- School Development aim is for each class to experience an educational visit or have curriculum enriched by a visiting speaker at least once per term.
